SHAREHOLDER

steve.rubin@leonard.com

Steve Rubin focuses his practice on the representation of privately owned, entrepreneurial companies. Steve provides advice and strategic vision for both growth and mature companies, and guides clients in their development with planning, strategy and implementation. He is a trusted adviser to a wide-range of business enterprises in their day-to-day legal matters, as well as handling business sales and acquisitions, business formation, business succession and financing for businesses. His extensive experience allows him to understand how a legal matter fits into the overall business strategy of the client, to anticipate potential difficulties, and to provide creative solutions to his clients' legal needs.
